N-400 INTERVIEW DAY BINDER

Printable organizer: documents, trips, addresses, updates.

12 PAGES | PRINT & FILL

Read this first

IMPORTANT: This binder is an organizing tool, not legal advice. It does not tell you whether you are eligible or what to answer. Always follow your own interview notice (Form I-797C), the current Form N-400 instructions, and the USCIS Document Checklist (M-477) at uscis.gov. For advice about your case, talk to a licensed immigration attorney or a DOJ-accredited representative. Not affiliated with USCIS.

How to use: print these pages, fill them in from your own records, and put each original document behind its tab. Bring the binder and copies to your interview as your notice instructs.

Tab 1 - Core items (check what your notice lists)

[ ] Interview notice (I-797C) [ ] Permanent Resident Card [ ] State photo ID
[ ] All current and expired passports / travel documents for your statutory period
[ ] A copy of the N-400 you filed and its evidence
[ ] Anything else your notice specifically lists:

Tab 2 - Documents that depend on your answers

USCIS FAQ: the N-400 instructions list originals to bring 'depending on different case scenarios'. Tick only what applies and note where it is:
[ ] Name-change document [ ] Marriage / divorce / death certificates
[ ] Tax returns or IRS transcripts [ ] Child-support evidence
[ ] Certified court dispositions [ ] Selective Service letter
[ ] Other:

Tab 3 - Trips outside the U.S.

Match each entry to your passport stamps and to what you wrote on your N-400.
Departed | Returned | Country | Days | Passport page / proof

Tab 4 - Addresses

From | To | Full address | Proof I can show

Tab 5 - Employment / school

From | To | Employer or school | City/State | Role

Tab 6 - What changed since I filed

USCIS asks you to be ready to update your answers. List any new address, job, marriage, divorce, child, travel, citation or arrest since filing, with dates and the document that shows it.

Tab 7 - My questions for an attorney

Anything you are unsure about belongs here, not in a guess at the interview. Bring these to a licensed attorney or accredited representative before your date.

Tab 8 - Interview-day plan

Office address: _____ Arrival time: _____ Parking/transit: _____
Night before: binder packed, notice printed, ID in wallet.
Civics + English practice: use the official USCIS study materials and the free guides at yarosim.github.io/immigration-interview-guides.
